

Emergency telephones are located:

- in the Recreation Center parking lot
- in the Fairgrounds parking lot
- at the top of the outside stairs near Merner-Pfeiffer
- between Carnegie and Wheeler Halls
- the northwest corner of Bonds
- by the exterior elevator of the Student Activities Center
- on the north side of the Observatory
- the southwest corner of the baseball field by Heritage Hall
- the west side of the Speech Clinic, 325 Front Street
- the west side of Harding Hall, 77 Bagley Road
- the BW parking lot at the corner of Bagley Road and Berea Street
- the northeast sidewalk of the Kleist Center for Arts and Drama
- the southeast walkway of the Strosacker Union
- and between Dietsch and Klein Halls
- In the Math and Computer Science Building lobby, just outside the 24-hour computer lab.

These phones dial directly to the Department of Safety and Security. Additional locations are currently being considered for additional phones.

In addition to the emergency phones, each residence hall has an outdoor phone adjacent to the entrance doors from which calls can be made to report suspicious activity as well as to request an escort or other assistance.
